| OK | Sep 18-Mar 19 | | | Bitburger Premium Pils 0% - yes, zero alcohol, taste equivalent to a number of the mass-produced Lion/Carlton beers (ho-hum) but ideal for | 0 | Pilsner/Zero Alc. |
| OK | 3ep 16-Mai 19 | | | hot sunny days when you're the designated driver | U | Filsher/Zero Alc. |
| OK | Jul-Dec 2020 | | | Carlton Zero 0% - tastes very similar to a Carlton Draught. Not my preference but a great choice if it has to be zero alcohol | 0 | Lager/Zero Alc. |
| OK | Nov 19-Jun 20 | | | Heineken 0.0 Beer 0% - quite similar to an alcoholic Heineken, a reasonable lager that stands on its own despite it also being zero alcohol. Mighty fine achievement | 0 | Lager/Zero Alc. |
| | | | | Breheny Bros Maltx Non-Alcoholic 0.5% - similar taste to others of this genre, healthy malt level, mild tar, honey, walnut, chocolate, | 0.5 | |
| OK | Apr-May 2023 | | | cantaloupe. Struggled to find the fruit, but this doesn't mean it is not an unpleasant brew | 0.5 | Ale |
| OK | Jan-Feb 2022 | 33 | 20 | Heaps Normal Quiet XPA < 0.5% - excellent zero alcohol drop. Tropical fruit, touch of malt, mid-bitterness. Full beer flavour - clever | 0.5 | XPA/Zero Alc. |
| OK | Oct-Dec 2021 | | 69 | Sobah Beverages Pepperberry IPA 0.5% - hoppy, citrus, spice, pepper, eucalypt - one of the best low alcohol beers. Available in Coles supermarkets | 0.5 | IPA/Zero Alc. |
| OK | Oct-Dec 2021 | | | Pirate Life Point Nine 0.9% - very low alcohol, low-mid bitterness, lemon, un-ripe peach, but, overall, not quite satisfying. Taste is very similar to Athletic Brewing's Run Wild 0.5% IPA. Prefer Heineken 0.0 or Carlton Zero, although different styles, to these. | 0.9 | Low Alc. |
| ОК | Jul-Aug 2022 | | | Pirate Life Point Nine Ale 0.9% - a low alcohol beverage that just misses the mark. Dry, wheaty, not much body, hot ginger, bitterness out of balance. Reviewed previously and am a bit more sympathetic to it this time | 0.9 | Low Alc. |
| OK | Mar-Jun 2022 | | 148 | Brick Lane Sidewinder Hazy Pale Ale 1.1% - tropical, orange, hazy, malt, low/mid-bitterness. Great effort in the ultra low alcohol style | 1.1 | Pale |
| ОК | Jul-Aug 2022 | | | Molly Rose Radler Lime & Jalapeño Lager 2.8% - lime upfront, ginger and a spicy heat that lingers at the back. Clean and fresh and an excellent light beer alternative. | 2.8 | Lager/Low Alc. |
| ОК | Jul-Aug 2022 | | | Molly Rose Radler Very Mandarin Lager 2.8% - the warning on the side of the can gives a clue 'Contains mandarin'. That's about it for this lager, although it's refreshing and a good summer outdoors option | 2.8 | Lager/Low Alc. |
| No | Apr-May 2023 | | | La Sirène Passiflore Passion & Lime Hazy Wild Ale 3.0% (tap) - acetone gasoline nose, lime, bubblegum, lean. Misses the mark | 3 | Wild Ale |
| ОК | Jan-Jun 2021 | | | Kaiju Main Squeeze Passion Guava Session Ale 3.2% - tasty mid-strength with lemon citrus (oddly missing overt passionfruit and guava flavours), fresh, clean and crisp. Throw it down on a warm summer day | 3.2 | Ale |
| ОК | Jul-Dec 2020 | | | Boatrocker Brewing Sunshine & Rainbows Table Beer (Saison/Sour) 3.4% (500ml) 12/2017 - citrus (lemon, lime, orange), sweeter than usual saison/sour, low Brett. Very sessionable | 3.4 | Sour/Saison |
| OK | Jul-Dec 2020 | | | Akasha Little Smith IPA 3.5% - low ABV but still sufficiently bitter for a satisfying taste with mandarin/grapefruit zest and pine | 3.5 | IPA |
| OK | Jan-Feb 2022 | 44 | 63 | Balter Captain Sensible (Pale Ale) 3.5% - pine, citrus, tropical, mid bitterness, caramel/burnt toffee, restrained malt. Value flavour for a Session style | 3.5 | Pale |
| OK | Nov-Dec 2022 | | | Black Arts Table Beer Farmhouse Ale 3.5% - gentle Farmhouse Ale, even by Sour standards, almost pink hue, lifted spice and lemon/orange, apricot, ash at the back as the fruit subsides, easy drinking | 3.5 | Sour/Farmhouse |
| OK | Oct-Dec 2021 | 72 | 51 | Bodriggy Speccy Juice Session IPA 3.5% - orange rind, tropical, pine resin, hopped up. Good session alternative, solid body, but would want a cleanser | 3.5 | IPA |
| OK | Jan-Feb 2022 | | | Brick Lane Backyarder Crisp Lager 3.5% - lagers aren't my preference but this one, with its citrus/orange and malt flavours, plus lower alcohol, is a good refresher for warm summer afternoons | 3.5 | Lager |
| ОК | Sep 18-Mar 19 | | | CBCo (Colonial) Small Beer Session Pale Ale 3.5% - reasonable flavour for a mid-strength, v. sessionable | 3.5 | Pale |
| OK | Jan-Feb 2022 | | | Cricketers Session Ale 3.5% - closer to a lager than an Ale, perfumed initial taste, touch of pepper, low bitterness. Just ok, but a style that some will go for | 3.5 | Ale |

| ОК | Nov 19-Jun 20 | | | Forrest Brewing Irish Red 3.5% - the name refers more to the colour than anything else. A mid-strength beer with a little more flavour and more bitterness than the norm for this style. As such, it's ok | 3.5 | Red Ale |
| OK | Jan-Feb 2022 | | | Moon Dog Goin' Steady XPA 3.5% - tropical, spice, white pepper, melon, orange, apricot. Good summer afternoon session treat | 3.5 | XPA |

| OK | Nov 19-Jun 20 | | | Bad Shepherd Passionfruit Sour 4% - like a tart passionfruit pie, with sweet and sour in happy conjunction, the acidic flavours deliver a lip-smacking freshness to this well-made summer thirst quencher. A v. good example of the genre | 4 | Sour |
| OK | Jun-Oct 2023 | 21 | 47 | Balter Eazy Hazy 4% - Lemon, lime, spritz/zest, apricot, orange, subtle smokiness, white pepper, nice bitterness, easy throwdown at this ABV | 4 | Ale |

| ОК | Jan-Jun 2021 | | | Fellr Lime & Soda Brewed Alcoholic Seltzer 4% - fruity, summer drink with little evidence of any alcoholic content apparent. Fizzy (goes flat quickly) and flavour of lemonadre. Refreshing, but not a serious beer | 4 | Seltzer |
| OK | Jun-Oct 2023 | | | Garage Project Golden Path Hazy IPA 4% - Orange, pine, grapefruit, lemon, mid-bitterness, crisp. Pine lingers and the whole gives good value for a session ale | 4 | IPA |
| OK | Oct-Dec 2021 | | | Garage Project Golden Path Hazy IPA 4% - tropical fruit, orange, peach kernel, hoppy, low malt, mid mouthfeel, summer session option | 4.0 | IPA |
| ОК | Mar-Jun 2022 | | | Garage Project Golden Path Hazy Pale Ale 4% - 2nd review. Label on Royston tap IPA, lemon, orange, touch tropical, hazy, bordering on a sour but for the malt backbone. Sessionable | 4.0 | Pale |
| ОК | Sep-Oct 2022 | | | Little Creatures Squeaky Clean < 100 Calories IPA 4% - toasty malt bitterness over citrus (orange, lemon) sweet/tartness with a hint of tropical fruit | 4.0 | IPA |
