OK	Apr-Oct 2019			Woolshed Brewery The Big Orange Kettle Sour 4.1% - think Fanta on the front palate but settles down with a rounded sour bitterness in the mouth. Not especially sour, but the citrus spritz reminds a bit much of a soft drink. OK for some for summer, however	4.1	Sour
OK (with reservations)	Nov 19-Jun 20			Yeastie Boys Melon Balls Dortmund Melon Lager 5.1% - Rockmelon, lime, bubble-gum, guava, violets. A bit too much front of palate fruit salad flavours to make a satisfying beer. Main appeal would be to the teenage set	5.1	Lager
OK	Jun-Oct 2023			Yebisu Premium Lager 5% - Brewed in Sapporo and imported by Coopers, a worthy contender for best lager label. Crisp, clean, fresh, with hoppy aroma and full malt bitterness mouthfeel. Would love to sample this on tap	5	Lager
OK	Nov-Dec 2022	7	10	Young Henrys Newtowner Australian Pale Ale 4.8% - bought on special at BWS, I may have been too harsh in my earlier review below. It actually fills the mouth with malt, blood orange, grapefruit, dark chocolate, crisp mid bitterness. Good. Probably why it finished 10 in GABS. The can BB date was 10 months hence and maybe it was old stock last time - best I can do in my defence	4.8	Pale
OK	Nov 19-Jun 20	7	10	Young Henry's Newtowner Australian Pale Ale 4.8% - no middle, lemon grapefruit citrus on the side of the palate, nothing auspicious, easy drinking style	4.8	Pale
